

ABOUT US:

The Kent/Medway project is run by Sarah, Andy and Sue, qualified teachers and musicians with extensive experience working within the SEN sector. Alongside our staff team are an amazing bunch of volunteers who play a vital role in making MMP Kent the unique 'family' that it is.

Our musicians overcome extraordinary challenges every day and part of our 'mission' is to help them show what they can achieve, what they can offer and what they can teach us all. They are an inspiration!

Kent/Medway

Award winning music education service for people with learning disabilities

Come and join our musical family

The Music Man Project Kent is part of the award-winning Music Man Project UK – an inclusive music education service specifically for people with learning disabilities. We seek to offer inspirational opportunities for singing, playing and performing together.

What do we do?

We provide regular, ongoing accessible music education leading to inspirational performance opportunities.

We meet weekly and teach a range of musical skills throughout the stimulating and fun sessions.

We teach students to sing, sign and play a variety of percussion together.

We use music to help break down barriers and challenge stereotypes.

We develop confidence, build self-esteem and enhance communication and social interaction.

We provide a platform for people with a learning disability to shine.

We encourage each other and have fun!

Aims

- To provide opportunities to sing, play and perform.
- To promote community and a place of belonging.
- To build confidence, inspire and encourage a sense of achievement
- To challenge misconceptions by demonstrating what people with disabilities CAN do in spite of the challenges they face.
- To bring out the best in each of our performers.
